Sean Mohomane

DATA SCIENTIST

MY BACKGROUND

I'm a very passionate individual, who's always eager to learn and meet new people who desire to reach their potential. I've gained various soft skills while leading a team in sales. I'm looking to offer my courage and resolve to a diverse team/company that's looking to provide a quality service to people.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

DATA CAPTURER | KING NTISE PTY.

MARCH 2019 - AUGUST 2019

Involved creating invoices and executing various Excel functions like Sum and Average for 'King Ntise', a stationery company. I'm very comfortable using Excel to perform various tasks.

SALES | WORLDVENTURES

MARCH 2018 - JUNE 2018

The skills I gained include presenting to wide audiences of different cultural backgrounds. I can now also work with different teams. I had a team of four that I would manage. My presentation skills are good and I work well with a group of people.
